

15 September 1960

General H. K. Johnson
U. S. Army Command and General Staff College
Fort Leavenworth, Kansas

Dear General Johnson:

I desire to express my appreciation for the many kindnesses and courtesies shown me during my visit at the College on 12-14 September 1960.

I feel that through the cooperation and efforts of members of your staff, I was able to carry out my mission and meet the needs of my superiors. I was intrigued and impressed by the organization, efficiency, and layout of the instructional plant; so much so, that I hope we will be able to use some of the ideas in our new building.

I also would like to thank you for the hospitality you extended me in the invitation to the dinner for Lt. General Cannon.

My escort officer, Major J. R. D. Cleland, was a very efficient and accommodating host. He was effectively able to rearrange my schedule of briefing in order to accomplish my mission and I was impressed with his thoroughness of operation.

I would welcome the opportunity of being of some future service to you or your staff members as a return for the courtesies extended to me.

Sincerely yours,

STATINTL
